

I am writing to show my support for Local Number Portability (LNP). I firmly believe that it is good for the consumer to have flexibility in changing wireless carriers without losing their existing phone number. This is the same flexibility afforded to wireline customers. Secondly, I believe it supports a more competitive market among service providers. Please move forward with the implementation of Local Number Portability (LNP).